

Faculty Senate and Association

The Faculty of Mayville State University, with the cooperation of the institution, shall create a Constitution for the purpose of establishing an orderly process whereby academic-related groups and individuals may share in the determination of educational policy.

Mayville State University adopted a Faculty Association and Senate Constitution on November 22, 1993. The constitution and any future amendments must be approved by the university president and the North Dakota State Board of Higher Education. The constitution is located in the MSU Faculty Handbook on the MSU website.

Revised: January, 2015
